

Huntington Beach NEWS

Information
Hunting

Updated
Tuesday, June 5, 2012

More News

Community News

Page 1

Page 2

Page 3

COSTA MESA...On June 5th Kennedy Wilson's Commercial Investment Group will hold a grand opening of its newest property on June 5th, the Pacifica at Newport Plaza, a newly constructed 32-unit condominium project in Costa Mesa. Seventeen units of the original have already been sold.

"We are excited to be part of a project that offers luxury living at affordable prices close to the beach," stated John Prabhu, president of Kennedy Wilson. "No other product in the Costa Mesa/ Newport Beach area is comparable."

"We're looking forward to welcoming everyone to Pacifica on Saturday and Sunday to have lunch with us and enter to win a spa giveaway or gift card to Fashion Island," said Pamela Gillett, Sales Manager at Pacifica at Newport Plaza.

The grand opening will be a great opportunity for potential buyers to see a magnificent property offering finishes that are second to none.

” Conveniently located to the 55 Freeway, Newport Beach and Triangle Square Mall, Pacifica at Newport Plaza offers sophisticated exterior features such as gated community entries, decorative private driveways and fully furnished, private two-car garages. The refined interior details include Kohler® plumbing fixtures, granite kitchen countertops, Sub-Zero built-in refrigerators, natural stone flooring and designer selected carpeting and finishes.

Residents will also enjoy luxuries such as gas fireplaces, master bathroom soaking tubs and Decora® silent-touch electrical switches. With historically low interest rates and FHA financing, the 2 bedroom, 2.5 bath units are well suited for first time homebuyers. Prices for the units start from the $400,000s.

For more information, please go to www.pacificanewport.com, or visit the sales office, open daily from 12 to 5 p.m., at 401 Bernard St. near Triangle Square in Costa Mesa.